

SOCIETY OFFICERS

PRESIDENT

1. The President is the chief executive and key decision maker of the Society and serves as a visible representative of the Society to the public.
2. The President chairs the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee and presides at all of the Society's meetings.
3. The President directs Society activities through the President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer and various Committees.
4. The President appoints Committee Chairpersons, and may appoint Committee members or allow Committee Chairpersons to select their own Committee members.
5. Along with the other officers, the President serves as liaison to specific Committees and provides the Committees with insight, guidance and assistance.
6. The President is responsible for:
 - 6.1. Notifying those members who may no longer qualify as members because they:
 - 6.1.1. have not signed the affirmation statement
 - 6.1.2. have not paid their dues
 - 6.1.3. have not completed their application update within the prescribed time frame
 - 6.2. Carrying out responsibilities as stipulated in the SRMC Action Guidelines For Unethical Practices.
 - 6.3. Verifying that there will be proper representation for delivery of the SRMC's ARM Award at the annual CPCU Convention.
 - 6.4. Authorizing, with the concurrence of the President-Elect and Treasurer, the Treasurer to invest Corporate funds.
 - 6.5. Distributing the Nominating Committee's proposed slate of Directors and Officers to Membership no later than thirty days prior to the annual meeting.